SISTER BARBARA CLEM has been teaching at Louisville for eleven years. She is the head of the Drama Department and the Dean of Student Activities, besides moderating Drama Club and Student Council. She was graduated from Mount St. Mary's where she majored in theatre arts. She has also attended Loyola and Immaculate Heart. Sister Barbara enjoys the beach and is interested in drama and public relations. This year she teaches Acting I and II, Advanced Acting, Religion, and Driver's Education.

MISS ANNE ETHERIDGE has been at Louisville for three years and is in her first year as Dean of Discipline. She received her degree from UCLA, having majored in film, and has done graduate work at USC. Film and writing are areas of special interest for Miss Etheridge, as shown by the classes she teaches: Film History, Creative Writing, and English II. She is also the moderator of the Lupu Pick Film Society.

MISS OLGHA YANIS, one of 18 children and a native of Panama, attended Miami U, Oxford, Panama U, UCLA, Pierce, and Valley JC. She acts in her Spanish theater in Hollywood and performs in TV and radio. At Louisville, Miss Yanis is the swimming coach and teaches Physiology, Physical Science, and Spanish I.

SISTER PATRICIA O'BRIEN has been at Louisville for two years. She was graduated from Immaculate Heart College with a major in English, and has done graduate work at Loyola University. Sister Patricia enjoys reading, cooking, handywork, and playing tennis. She currently teaches English I, Geometry, and Yearbook and is the moderator of Service Club.

MISS ROSEMARY PERRY, the head of the Guidance Department, was graduated from Immaculate Heart College and has a B.A. in social science and an M.A. in education. She has also attended UC Riverside, Santa Clara, and Loyola. Miss Perry enjoys sewing, gardening, bowling, tennis, and traveling. She moderates CSF.

FATHER JOHN MALLEY is a new member to Louisville's Counseling and Guidance Department. He majored in philosophy at St. Bonaventure University and has done graduate work in Rome and at San Diego State and USC. Father John enjoys mountain climbing, backpacking, body-surfing, reading, and listening to light classical music. He presently teaches Psychology at Crespi High.

SISTER GRACE JORDAN is in her first year here at Louisville, and she is currently teaching English and Latin. Sister Grace graduated from University College in Dublin, where she majored in English, and she also did her graduate studies there. Welcome to Louisville, Sister Grace!

SISTER NUALA RYAN is the head of our Music Department for her third year at Louisville. She teaches Choral Music, Freshman Religion, and Guitar, and she was the music director for our production of "Carousel." Sister Nuala graduated from Mount Saint Mary's College with a music major, and she received her licentiate from the Royal Irish Academy of Music in Dublin. Besides music, Sister Nuala is interested in swimming and tennis.

SISTER RITA McCORMACK is currently in her third year at Louisville, and she is teaching Freshman World Studies. Sister Rita is a graduate of Immaculate Heart College, where she majored in history. She received her Masters in Education from Loyola University. Aside from history, Sister Rita's special interest lies in music.

MRS. BETTY SILVA, a mother of two and in her second year at Louisville, teaches American Problems and World Studies. Mrs. Silva graduated from the University of Portland with a history major, and she did graduate studies at Immaculate Heart College. She enjoys sewing, skiing on both water and snow, and camping.

SISTER ANTONIA BYRNE is presently in her first year at Louisville. She studied theology at the University of San Francisco and is now teaching Christian Ethics, Contemporary Problems of Belief and Algebra I. Sister Antonia enjoys music, plays, movies, ping-pong, and especially nature.

MRS. DOROTHY MAACK is the head of our Home Economics Department, and she teaches Clothing I, Clothing II, Foods, Child Development, and Home and Apparel Arts. With three children and one grandson, Mrs. Maack is interested in people, crafts, camping, travel, and her church. She is a graduate of the University of Idaho, where she received her B.S. in Home Economics and later her M.S. in Education. Mrs. Maack also attended three other colleges.

MRS. MARY CARROLL is in her third year at Louisville. She teaches Spanish I, English I, and Spanish Conversation, and she moderates the International Club and the Freshman Class. Mrs. Carroll graduated from the University of Santa Clara with a major in Spanish, and she did graduate studies at U.C.L.A. She has also attended the University of Madrid and the Interamerican University of Mexico City.

MISS MARILYN MOHR may be teaching French I and II for her eleventh (yes, eleventh!) year at Louisville, but now she is learning Spanish and finding an interest in Flamenco music and dancing! Miss Mohr graduated from Mount St. Mary's College with a French major, and she is doing graduate studies: she will soon have her M.S. in Education, and she will work on an M.A. in French next year. Miss Mohr is the head of our Foreign Language Department and is International Club moderator.

MISS CATHY WEAKLAND cannot pass a bookstore without going inside. Maybe that would explain in part her interest in English, in which she majored at Mount Saint Mary's College and at Loyola University. Miss Weakland is in her fourth year at Louisville, and she teaches English II, American Studies, American Literature of the South, and Contemporary American Literature.

MRS. BETH TRENT, the Dance Department head, and the Dance Club moderator, is in her fifth year at Louisville. She teaches Choreography, and Dance I, II, and III. Mrs. Trent attended Wayne State University, where she majored in social science. Before joining our faculty, she danced professionally in musical theatre, on T.V., and in movies.

MRS. CAROL NARANJO, in her first year at Louisville, teaches Physical Education and Drawing, and she moderates G.A.A. and the Cheerleaders. Mrs. Naranjo graduated from Cal State Long Beach and did her graduate studies there, having majored in physical education. She is interested in drawing and crafts, volleyball, tennis, skiing, and violin music.

MRS. RENATA CARLSON, in her first year at Louisville, is teaching German. She graduated from (ready, German students?) Lette Haus, Berlin, and Dolmetscher Schule, Berlin, Germany, where she majored in languages. Mrs. Carlson enjoys sewing, knitting, rugmaking, and interior decorating. She has three daughters, Donya, Sabrina, and Benita. Welcome to Louisville, Mrs. Carlson!

DOCTOR JOAN CULLUM is in her third year at Louisville. She teaches Christian Marriage to the Juniors and Seniors.

MRS. MARY SHIFFRIN teaches Sociology, Anthropology, Economics, and American Government and she is the NHS moderator. She graduated from California State University at Northridge with a sociology major, and she received her Master of Arts in Sociology there. Mrs. Shiffrin also attended University of Redlands and Memphis State University. She is a Gothic novel fan and a Sherlock Holmes buff with three cats: Doctor Watson, Professor Moriarty, and Inspector Lestrode.

MISS JUDITH ANN HIMMEL, working above and beyond the call of duty, teaches Physics, Chemistry, and Physical Science and moderates the Science Club. Miss Himmel graduated from Immaculate Heart College with a chemistry major, and last summer she worked at the U.S.C. Hancock Foundation on the L.A. Harbor Pollution Study. She is also musically oriented playing the English horn, the oboe, the clarinet, and recorders, and she enjoys photography and the study of photochemical kinetics.

MRS. DELORES HUNTER is currently the head of our Business Department, while in her second year at Louisville. She teaches Typing, Shorthand, Notehand, and Business Machines. Mrs. Hunter graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a major in business education, and she later received her Masters in Education from the same school.

MRS. CAROLINE GLASER, in her first year at Louisville, is the head of the Speech Department and the moderator of Speech Club. She majored in speech at Cal State University, Northridge. Both Mrs. Glaser and her husband are currently attending law school. During the summer, she teaches in debate institutes and tries to relax. Mrs. Glaser enjoys music, and particularly piano. She teaches Speech I and Advanced Debate.

MRS. KATY DAVIS has been at Louisville for one year. She was graduated from the University of San Francisco where she majored in sociology and has attended Cal State University, Northridge. Mrs. Davis has been a kindergarten teacher and is very interested in people, art, and music. She enjoys building furniture, also. Religion II and CCD Teacher Training are the courses which Mrs. Davis teaches.

MISS LESLIE GERSON majored in French and English at UCSB and has done graduate work at UCLA. She also studied abroad at the Université de Bordeaux. Miss Gerson is an avid traveler, doing so every summer throughout the USA, Europe, or Asia. She enjoys cooking and eating different foods, and is very interested in people and keeping involved. French II, III, IV, and Conversation and Comparative Cultures are the subjects taught by Miss Gerson. She is also the Sophomore Class, Student Council, and French NHS moderator.

SISTER MARY CHRISTINE HUNTER has been at Louisville for two years. She was graduated from Mt. St. Mary's College with a major in English and has done graduate studies at Loyola/Marymount. Sister Chris likes horseback riding and just having fun.

She teaches Painting, Ceramics, Design, Photography, and Crafts; she heads the Art Department and moderates Art Club.

MRS. SUZANNE GUINER majored in history at St. Mary's College and received her M.A. from Notre Dame U, Ind. She and her husband, Stephen, a corporate attorney, have a daughter, Stephanie, age 5. Mrs. Guiner is very involved in consumer affairs, helps moderate the Juniors, is a counselor, and teaches American Problems and World Studies.

SISTER SHIRLEY BRIGGS, in her first year of teaching at Louisville, is not new to the campus. She was once an LVHS student! Sr. Shirley majored in biology at Mt. St. Mary's, attended CSU Long Beach and CSN, and has done graduate work at Loyola U. She likes to swim and play tennis and guitar. Sr. Shirley is the head of the Science Department and is the moderator of Science Club, besides teaching Biology.

SISTER LAURA GORMLEY is the head of the Religious Studies Department. She moderates CARE, (Christian Action Reaches Everyone). Sister Laura teaches three classes of Sophomore Religion and one class each of Christian Churches and World Religions.

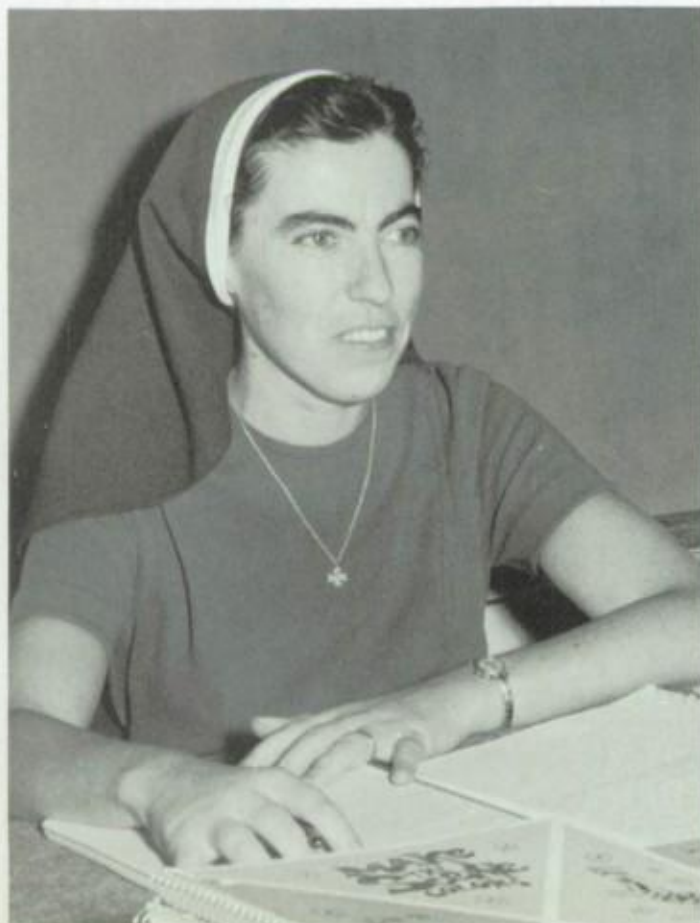

SISTER KATHLEEN CUNNINGHAM has been at Louisville for three years. She majored in English at Immaculate Heart and has done graduate work at UCLA. Sr. Kathleen heads the English Department and teaches English and Journalism.

DANNY WARD, AL ELHEN, and STEVEN PETER BROWN are Louisville's three custodians to whom we owe very much gratitude for keeping the campus attractive, for helping students and faculty in their various ventures and needs, and for being our friends. Our latest addition, Steven Peter Brown, is attending U.C.L.A. and is majoring in Engineering. He is interested in rockclimbing, backpacking, electronics and technical theatre.

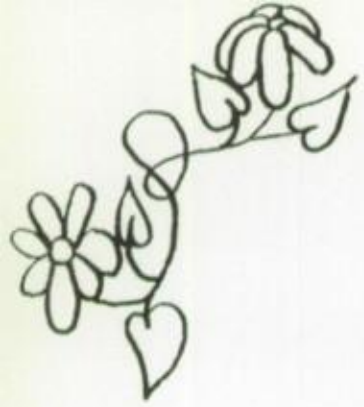

Mr. Steve Peter Brown was not available for photography because of his great demand on campus.

Mr. Al Elhen was not available for photography because of his busy schedule.

Teri Hackett: "You've got so much to say, say what you mean. Mean what you're thinking and think anything. Oh, why must you waste your life away. You've got to live for today." Cat Stevens

Nansi Hare: "When you part from your friend you grieve not, for that which you love most in him may become clearer in his absence; as the mountain to the climber when he is on the plain."

Kathy Heim: "I sought my soul, but my soul I could not see. I sought my God, but my God eluded me. I sought my brother, and I found all three."

Tracy Hoyt: "Why do people strive so much for social standing when it is so easy to go barefoot?"

Daphne Hurrell: "...And if you want to dream, just take my hand..." Elton John

Sue Janssen: "Memories are the fuel that aloneness burns on."

Maryann Jordan: "Yesterday we were, and today we are! This is the will of the goddess among the sons of the goddess; what is your will, oh sons of the monkeys?"

Julie Kauffman: "You're soooo had!"

Sandi Krikorian: "Baby, baby, it's a wild world and it's hard to get by just upon a smile."

Ann Kurzeka: "If life gives you lessons, make lemonade!"

Kathy Larrabee: "The mind is restless, turbulent, strong, as difficult to subdue as the wind. We must not dissimulate nor try to forget this indignation, which is one of the most passionate forms of love."

Suzy Lefevre: "And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter and sharing of pleasures. For in the dew of little things, the heart finds its morning and is refreshed." Kahlil Gibran

Maureen McGuinness: "The love in your heart wasn't put there to stay. Love isn't love 'til you give it away!"

Marybeth Marchello: "Beauty seen is never lost." John Greenleaf Whittier

Louisville again this season proved its superior volleyball talent with its entry into the C.I.F. Play-offs. In pre-season tournament play the Varsity team won 1st place in the St. Anthony's Tournament. The leadership and setting of Mary Gaudino; spiking and blocking of starters Vicki Cline, Marijo Crawley, Liz Hughes, and Julie Robothom; serving of Piper Corbeil and the enthusiastic playing of Claire Kelm and Margie McKnight all contributed to the successful league record of 10-2. Coached by Mrs. Carol Naranjo, the Varsity team went 1-1 in play-off competition losing to top-notched Marymt. High School. The Junior Varsity, also coached by Mrs. Naranjo, combined their individual efforts to come out of league action with a 6-3 record. Made up of 3 juniors and 7 sophomores, the prospects are good for next year's varsity team. A new addition this year was the freshmen volleyball team. Made up of 17 freshmen and coached by Marie Santoro and Laurie Sumpter, the team gained valuable experience for next year when they will be able to try out for Varsity and J.V. teams.

This year's basketball team has 17 returning Varsity and J.V. lettermen. Mrs. Naranjo picked a 10 member team made up of 2 seniors, 5 juniors and 3 sophomores. The forwards were: Vicki Cline, Karen Conmy, Maria Kremer and Julie Robotham. The guard position was especially quick this year with Mary Lefevre, Lisa Novacek, Frances O'Meara and Terri Puth. In the center spot were Kathy Morley and Robin Hunter; their rebounding ability greatly aided the team. The J.V. team, made up of juniors, sophomores and a freshman, played not only teams in the league but the varsity teams of neighboring public high schools. A new addition this year was the freshman team, coached by Marie Santoro. The team played public junior high schools of the area.

SWIMMING

Louisville's swim team is nothing short of fantastic. Its ability, spirit and potential can only hint at the winning 1973 season. Coached by Kelly Yagemann and Miss Olga Yanis, this year's team is made up of 3 seniors, 7 juniors, 15 sophomores, and 13 freshmen. The team has won the league championship for all of the last 12 years.

If there is hope even this dreary room could become a castle
with limitless corridors!
Johanne DRAMA CLUB

I expect to pass through this world
but once

any good thing, therefore,
that I can do

Or any kindness I can show

to any fellow human being let me do it now.

Let me not defer nor neglect it;

for I shall not pass this way again.
